

Chris Rydzewski (Katrivesis)
Partnership Co Chair
Chris.Katrivesis@compuware.com

Chris Rydzewski, a Senior Account Executive with Compuware Corporation, has responsibility for IT solution sales for named Fortune 500 customers. Responsibilities also include driving toward strategic alignment with executive leadership within these accounts.

Chris' career spans over 20 years of various sales and sales management positions primarily in the IT technology and application space. Her primary strengths include new business development and strategic account coverage.

Chris has a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business Administration from the University of Michigan, and has completed coursework in the MBA Program at Wayne State University.

Currently serving as Co Chair of the Corporate Partnership Committee, Chris is excited about the MCWT organization and its mission.