
Jill Maiorano Biography

Jill has spent the last 20 years in the technology field, in various Sales and Sales Management roles, the last 7 at Cisco Systems as a Regional Manager. Jill has been leading Government and Education teams across the Midwest the last three years. Currently she is leading Cisco's $80 Million Government and Education sector across Michigan and Ohio. Jill is very involved in the community and has served on several Boards and Committees including several years as the Partnership Co-Chair for MCWT. In her role at Cisco she speaks to all types of schools from K-12, to Community Colleges and many 4 year institutions. She is involved in the discussions around 21st Century learning environments and how our students compete on the global stage and use technology as a tool for transformation. She and her team are very involved with the Cisco Academy programs and often interact with the High school and Community College students.

